

Join Pardes Levavot for the High Holy Days!

Celebrate the 5768 (2007) High Holy Days

In 2005 we were called to respond to the amazing confluence of Sacred Seasons – the Jewish High Holy Days and Sukkot; the Month of Ramadan; Mahatma Gandhi's birthday; the Feast of Francis of Assisi; Worldwide Communion Sunday and Pavarana/Sangha Day. We responded to "God's October Surprise" by rededicating ourselves, as co-creative partners, to healing the relationships among all of God's children so that together we might better care for the Gift of Creation.

The work continued in 2006 as we joined in prayer, ritual, chant and sacred space, acknowledging the mystery of the second of three years of convergence of the Sacred Seasons: "Expanding the God-Field: Renewing Our Commitment".

This year, join us in our journey back to the Source Of It All "T'shuvah: Recalibrating the Soul"

Our prayers, ritual, chant and storytelling will take us through a process of self-discovery to self-acceptance, compassion and the wisdom to know how AWESOME we really are, how WONDERFUL life is, how HOLY the world and all its inhabitants really are.

Jewish Renewal is

Joy-filled: Renewing Jewish practice with joyful prayer, song, dance, and music from all of our rich traditions (and some new ones)

Deeply Spiritual: Refreshing our spiritual practice focusing on ways to discover, connect with and nourish the soul

Inclusive: Re-thinking our community as Jews of all denominations and observance, non-Jews, interfaith families and all children are invited and encouraged to fully participate
